

I am very happy with the wisconsin No Call List rules. It is only crazy around election time now and that short of time is bearable. We used to get many calls per day, just cold call telemarketing. The peace and quiet in your own home should be allowed to continue as a necessity. We are proud of the Wisconsin No Call Rules and want to be allowed to keep them and our own peace.